GOH is the third of three Zero Balancing courses related to energy fields: Core Zero Balancing addresses the relationship between existing body energy fields and body structure; Alchemy of Touch applies amplification strategies to balance energy fields; GOH works with the fields themselves including the space between vibrations.

You Will Learn:

Theory of fields

Accessing, evaluating and navigating fields

Creation of 'windows' into the field

Entering and experiencing the 'gap' within the field

Compression of fields

Obtaining information from within the field

Self-referencing body signals as feedback for practitioner

Teachings to deepen your basic ZB skills and protocol use

Through exchanges of Zero Balancing sessions and demonstrations

Rebekah Harbour is an internationally recognized Certified Teacher of Zero Balancing.

Her students consistently say that her workshops are a fun and transformative experience where they feel safe and free to explore their personal and professional growth.

Accommodation is available in a converted rustic haybarn, or tenting on site. Meals from the organic produce from the land can be supplied, or you can make full use of the onsite kitchen to create your own culinary masterpieces.
