

Touching the Whole Person / TWP

COURSE TITLE: Touching the Whole Person

ABBREVIATION: TWP

EDUCATIONAL CREDIT: 25 CEUs

COURSE LENGTH: 4 days

PREREQUISITES: Zero Balancing II

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

Developed by Jim McCormick, Touching the Whole Person helps you to identify the archetypal signature of the five elemental emotions through touch and to provide fulcrums to help balance these emotions. You will learn to feel more deeply into the held energy in the bone and the energetic field; to go beyond merely identifying an imbalance in a joint or bone to learning to identify the quality of the energy held in the imbalance – including the client's emotions, self-image, concerns, etc. The course will include work on framing, processing, and listening to both the words of the client and their body's messages.

You will learn:

- To enhance your evaluation skills with more depth and precision
- About placing fulcrums into different realms -- emotions, wellness, core self, basic energetic imbalance
- To identify your own blocks while progressing as a Zero Balancer

What Participants say about Touching the Whole Person:

"I think Jim McCormick's class, 'Touching the Whole Person,' is one of the most important classes I've ever taken. It deepened my sensitivity and progressed my ZBs." Judith Sullivan, ZBHA Faculty

“I find Zero Balancing as done by Jim McCormick to be almost magical. No matter the need – physical, emotional, or spiritual – ZB offers relief. It has been my bodywork of choice for many years.” Rita Rice, LMT
